Triangle area: base times perpendicular height divided by two.

Two congruent triangles can form a rectangle.